Student Ethical Conduct Policy

This Ethical Conduct Policy outlines the behavioral norms and expectations that both NPTI and its students must adhere to in order to foster a respectful and productive learning environment.

Commitment to Learning

- 1.1. Academic Integrity: Students shall maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. This includes refraining from plagiarism, cheating, and any form of academic dishonesty.
- 1.2. Attendance and Punctuality: Students will attend all scheduled classes and arrive on time, recognizing the importance of consistent participation in their education.
- 1.3. Participation: Students are encouraged to actively engage in classroom discussions, practical training, and group activities, contributing to a vibrant learning community.
- 1.4. Respect for Faculty and Peers: Students shall show respect to their instructors, peers, and staff members, recognizing the value of diverse perspectives and experiences.

Professional Conduct

- 2.1. Dress Code: Students will adhere to the established dress code guidelines, maintaining a professional appearance during training sessions and practical exercises.
- 2.2. Professional Communication: Students will communicate professionally and courteously with fellow students, instructors, and clients, both in person and through digital channels.
- 2.3. Confidentiality: Students shall respect the confidentiality of all patient/client information and any proprietary information provided by NPTI. This includes refraining from sharing data or training methodologies without proper authorization.

Safety and Well-being

3.1. Safety Protocols: Students will follow all safety protocols and guidelines provided by NPTI, ensuring the well-being of themselves and others during training sessions.

3.2. Health and Hygiene: Students shall maintain personal hygiene and adhere to any health-related guidelines provided by NPTI, especially in light of contagious diseases.

3.3. Conflict Resolution: In the event of conflicts or disagreements, students shall seek peaceful resolution through respectful dialogue and, if necessary, involve appropriate NPTI staff or faculty.

Respect for Diversity

4.1. Inclusivity: Students will foster an inclusive and diverse environment, respecting all individuals regardless of their race, gender, religion, nationality, sexual orientation, or background.

4.2. Cultural Sensitivity: Students will be culturally sensitive, refraining from any behavior that may be considered offensive or discriminatory.

Compliance with Policies

5.1. NPTI Policies: Students shall familiarize themselves with and adhere to all policies and guidelines established by NPTI, including those related to conduct, attendance, and academic progress.

Consequences of Violations

6.1. Violation Consequences: Violations of this Ethical Conduct Policy may result in disciplinary actions, including warnings, probation, suspension, or expulsion, depending on the severity and recurrence of the violation.
